GAELIC LANGUAGE CLASS AT KINGSTON CATHOLIC SCHOOL, 159 BROADWAY, KINGSTON, NY!

Every Friday night at 6:30 PM about 10 students and 1 teacher gather to explore the written and spoken language of Ireland and Scotland, namely Gaelic. She is one of the oldest languages in Europe, much older than English. At present, due to the singular beauty of the language and her natural attractiveness in a multitude of ways, people all over North America are flocking to local classes to learn Gaelic. The days where people of Irish and Scottish background in North America were embarrassed by the soft and lilting Gaelic and English spoken by their parents and Grandparents are LONG gone and practically forgotten. The new generation of Americans could care less about how long their families have lived on this side of the ocean and how well they are or are not assimilated into the American culture. They happily and fully embrace ANY language which catches their ears or imaginations; they exercise their freedom of choice! Many of the people in Gaelic class have NO connection to Ireland nor Scotland whatsoever. Often, people are drawn to the language because they hear Gaelic singers sing beautiful compositions that speak to them not in English, but in the international language of love. They will often say "I have no idea what words were just sung in that song, but I know exactly what it was about!" Another possible reason for the attractiveness of the language is perhaps that the stories of the Gaels, a long history of hardship, brutality, exile, and heroic sacrifice reach out to a world audience and make a profound emotional connection with them. Gone are the days of people, whether of Gaelic background or not, who have a negative attitude toward the language from having a serious and retarding influence on other folks who express an interest in learning Gaelic from doing so. Honestly, the people of today, especially the young generation could care less about the negative emotional baggage of anyone else, especially the older generation. Is this not a good and beautiful thing and how it should be? That's right; the individual expression of freedom towards whatever ends the person has in mind. When one stops to consider the fact that learning another language makes one more intelligent, knowledgeable about his own native language, and improves one's creativity amongst numerous other benefits, the fact is obvious that a celebration is in order! In conclusion, tremendous advances in computer technology have advanced greatly the amount and rate of learning possible both in the classroom and at home. The interactive whiteboard as a presentation and learning tool makes the traditional chalkboard look like a primitive tool from the Stone Age! Gaelic class would be nonexistent without the generous support of KCS, Saint Mary's Parish, the ICCHV and the AOH and we thank all of them for their kindness and vision.

So, if you have even the slightest amount of curiosity, come on down Friday evening at 6:30 and learn the language of the Irish and Scottish Highlanders, connect with your birthright or your muse but mostly, have fun, make new friends, and feel good about what you can accomplish. $10 per class is a bargain!

NEXT MEETING

June 13, 2017

The Divine Mercy Room, St
Mary's Church grounds
6:00 P.M. at St. Mary's St.
Peter's (barbecue style)!

Gail Noble Wurster, sponsored by Chrissie Wrixon; Mary Anne Willson, sponsored by Jean Steuding; and Maureen Pagliaro, sponsored by Susan Feeney, were sworn in at our May meeting as members of the LAOH. They are all parishioners of St. Mary's St. Peter's. Congratulations Ladies! We are so happy you joined us.

Thank you for your donations for our Birthright "baby shower." The clothes and the money donations were greatly appreciated. You were very generous!

Our June picnic will be held on Tuesday, June 13, in the Divine Mercy room/church grounds at 6:00 p.m. at St. Mary's St. Peter's (barbecue style)! Call Chrissie Wrixon (339-7442) for reservations. The cost is $15, and guests are invited. At the picnic, a handmade American flag, donated by Lynn Gorman's family after her death, will be raffled off.

Aurora Rose "Rory" Decker, the three-year-old child from Port Ewen, lost her courageous battle with cancer. Please pray that the angels lead Rory into paradise, and pray that her family finds solace. You will remember that the Cups, Corks and Canvas Benefit was for Rory's expenses, and it was very successful. Thank you to all who donated to this worthy cause.

Patti Gilpatric initiated a campaign for keeping in touch with our active military. She provided cards which our members signed. Hopefully these cards will reach our service men and women by July 4. If you did not write a message or sign a card, please to do so at our picnic on June 13. Thank you, Patti, for coordinating this project!

The Hooley Chairs are Chrissie Wrixon, Pat Schiskie and Betty Manicone. Pam Boyle and Becky Dunne will also be on board to help. Thank you all for stepping up to the plate. As always, we know the Hooley on the Hudson (our biggest and most popular event besides the parade) scheduled for September 3 will be as successful as always! There will be a "Hooley" meeting in August, and prior to that time the committee will be contacting members to volunteer.

There will be no regular meetings in July and August.

We are so excited that again this year, Rose Ferraro-Bruck has volunteered to chair the 20- week club raffle with her assistant, Missy Harjes. Ginger Mills has also offered to help this year. This is our biggest fundraiser of the year, and it has been extremely successful! As a result, we have been able to better carry out our mission of charity. Each member is asked to sell three tickets (more if you can) at $20 each. Rose will have the tickets available at the picnic. Tickets will be mailed to you if you do not attend the picnic. THANK YOU THANK YOU THANK YOU Rose for again taking on this wonderful endeavor. Truly it has been a success story thanks to you!

The National Irish History Writing Contest opens in September. Students in grades 6-12 are eligible. This contest is sponsored by the LAOH. More information will be forthcoming. (This year's winners included two students from NYS). Tell your children and grandchildren to think about entering the contest.

June Miller, financial secretary, will begin accepting dues for the 2018 calendar year at the September meeting.

Nominations will be accepted at the October meeting, and elections will be held at the November meeting. The positions available are: President, Vice President, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, Financial Secretary, Irish Historian, Missions and Charities Officer, Catholic Action Officer, Mistress-at-Arms and Sentinel. There is a commitment for being a board member, but the experience and end results are rewarding! Contact Becky if you want a copy of job descriptions. An election committee will be formed in September. Let Becky know if you want to be a part of it. If you do not plan to run for an office, please consider volunteering in some capacity during the next year! We ALWAYS need dedicated volunteers!

Please always remember to reach out to our membership if you are in need of prayers or some kind of help. At one time or another, we all need assistance. We are fortunate to be a sisterhood who are there for each other.

Happy Fourth of July! Remember that we are still the greatest country in the world! Enjoy your families, travel safely, and pray for peace!
